Echo

Slit-brim Bucket Hat

The core is a minimalist, style-agnostic bucket hat. Yet, a slit at the brim tip and a luminous panel on the underside add an "echo", a subtle glint from the back or when flipped. A quiet detail that turns the ordinary into memorable.

Neo - Order

Pleated Foldable Hat

Order is not the opposite of freedom. Geometric pleats dissolve stylistic boundaries, while an auto-adapt mechanism empowers individual expression. Defining no single style, it blurs lines of gender, age, and occasion. To wear it is to be a Free Player. Within the pleats lies negative space that gently expands with the crown, auto-adapting to different head shapes. The hat itself is a foldable order, where the brim, no longer a solitary block, is supported by a triangular structure for a crisp arc. Each pleat is a deliberately set line, turning order into an elevated detail.

Fluid Femininity
Moving Boundaries

---

Boundaryless

Petit Mouvement

Boundaries only exist if you believe in them. The precise inverted pleats around the brim translate the fluidity of a skirt's hem. This is a deliberate act of transgression—rebuilding a skirt's silhouette with a crisp, structural fold. A breeze, a gesture, and the pleats respond with a gentle sway. It says femininity is fluid; grace holds ease. Each subtle shift is a new form, forever distinct from the moment before. Wear it, and you become a moving atmosphere. Your stance becomes the moment.

Hat & Ribbon Set
Fiber's Nature
Freedom

---

Wandering Verses

Hat & Ribbon Set

Abandoning stillness, we orchestrate a migration of fibers. Freed from the form, they reveal their pure, flowing nature. As the wind catches it, as you move, the crown's ribbon becomes a wearable, kinetic language.

Fibers have a character, textures tell a story.
The flowing ribbon is a fringe player, drifting freely between fabric, accessory, and garment.
The soft crown and long ribbon translate the freedom and gentleness above into a full-body sensation with every step and turn.
Unlock atmospheric freedom.

Rewind

Acordeón

Inspired by the soul of Argentine Tango: the bandoneon. From the raw pulse of 1880s dockside milongasto to the refined elegance of Piazzolla's 1960s concert halls, Tango's primal vitality, like the bandoneon's voice, deepens with time. To wear it is to carry a Time. Accordion, opening a portal to the past, playing chapters that are both nostalgic and sublime.

The Curve Paradox

Wide-brim Leaf Hat

Inspired by the curve of a leaf in nature—an elegant paradox within a world of rules. Nature knows no rigid lines, only the endless flow of living arcs, holding the rhythm of seasons and the cycle of life. We've sewn this leaf vitality into the brim. To wear it is to crown yourself with nature's freedom. Every lift and turn of your head becomes a flowing fashion expression.

Duality

Reversible Bucket Hat

Light and shadow, silk and tweed, soft and structured. Just as inner and outer worlds coexist, they collide, contrast, and embrace. Rejecting linear perfection, we embrace a dual tension that shifts freely. One side: sharp texture. The other: effortless softness. With a single invert, an infinite, unique sensory world unfolds.
